MOTHER'S WAY.

BY FATHER RYAN.

Oh, within our little cottage
As the shadows gently fall,
White the sunlight touches softly
One sweet face upon the wall—
Do we gather close together,
And in hushed and tender tone
Ask each other's full forgiveness
For the wrong that each has done.

Should you wonder why this custom
At the ending of the day,
Eye and voice would quickly answer,
"It was once our mother's way."

If our home be bright and cheery,
If it holds a welcome trace,
Opening wide its door of greeting
To the many—not the few;
If we share our father's bounty
With the needy day by day,
This because our hearts remember
This was ever mother's way.

Sometimes when our hands grow weary,
Or our tasks seem very long;
When our burdens look too heavy
And we deem the right all wrong;
Then we gain new fresh courage,
And we rise to proudly say:
"Let us do our duty bravely—
This was our dear mother's way."

Thus we keep her memory precious,
While we never cease to pray
That at last, when lengthening shadows
Mark the evening of our day,
They may find us waiting calmly
To go home our mother's way.

An Arrapahoe Buffalo Hunt.

In approaching the buffalo range a dance ensues. The tribe assembles about an open space in the middle of which are squatting many of the young men of the village, hideously painted and almost naked. A notorious chant, accompanied by a regular beating upon the "tom toms" is begun. The shrill treble of the squaws mingles not discordantly with the guttural tones of the bucks; and to this wild refrain the central group begin a rude and savage dance, hopping upon one foot and then upon the other, and yelling horribly all the while.

Those who join in this grotesque sport thus enroll themselves as a sort of "citizen soldiery," the chief purpose of which is the prevention of any interference with the buffaloes until, by a concerted action of the village, a "big surround" and great slaughter can be effected.

A buffalo hunt by Indians has been often described. The buffaloes are generally approached from such a direction that, in the chase that ensues, they will run toward camp, and by that means facilitate the transportation of their own flesh. Hundreds are killed, and the meat, cut into thin slices, is hung upon poles outside the lodge to dry in the sun. Cured by this process, it is said to be "jerked." Nothing pertaining to the animal is thrown away. The entrails, and, especially the tripe, indifferently cleaned, are eaten raw, or thrown upon live coals, where they shrivel and broil into fragrant crispness. The skull is cracked, and the squaws insert their slender fingers into its crevices, and greedily devour the bloody and uncooked brains.

The days that succeed a successful hunt, after the hides are in process of tanning, are passed in general idleness. All hands have eaten their fill, and with an Indian a full stomach means a glad but slothful heart.—Harper's Magazine.

THE PRESENT MOMENT.—There is but one moment fully in our hands, and that is the present. If we lose it, it is gone forever, and with it has flown the opportunity it brought. The next has its own mission, and cannot bear the burdens of the past. We must move quickly if we would keep ourselves fresh and bright for the labors of to-morrow. They come in series, each link of which presents itself once and no more. If we do not seize it, it vanishes; another may rise in its place, but the one we have dropped we can never restore. Life demands in all its places prompt, decisive action, and in respect more than in fulfilling good intentions. To loiter in this is to fritter them away; to postpone them is to banish them.

TEA.—Persons who are not aware that the first cup of tea poured out is the weakest, and that the tea grows stronger as you proceed, often bestow the poorest cup upon the greatest stranger and give the strongest to the youngest member of the family, who would have been better without any. Where several cups of equal strength are wanted, you should pour a little into each, and then go back, reversing the order as you fill them up, and the strength will be apportioned properly. This is so well understood in England, that an experienced pourer of tea waits till all the cups of the company are returned to her before she fills any a second time, that all may share alike.

Never get out of temper with your barber. A gentleman not long since was sitting in a barber's chair trying to read the evening paper while having his hair cut. The barber in the meantime was worrying him with the recital of a long story about the barber's boy and the shoemaker's daughter, a story which was strong until forbearance ceased to be a virtue, when the man being clipped looked up somewhat annoyed and exclaimed, "Impatiently, 'Oh cut it short!' The barber did cut it short. When the man left the chair he was as bald as a new-born baby. He wears a smoking cap in the church now, and is bothered to death by small boys who hand him bills of the theater where the can-can is danced.

DOMESTIC.

CHICAGO, March 4.—The Tribune's Washington special says it is reported that a delegation from the Chinese Six Companies will soon arrive in Washington to ask through the Chinese Legation whether the United States proposes to recognize the Burlingame Treaty and protect peaceful citizens of China residents in this country, and engaged in legitimate business. This is a new phase of the Chinese question which will probably give the Cabinet some trouble. The Burlingame Treaty of course very broadly guarantees protection by the United States to every Chinaman landed in America. Secretary Evarts is understood to have said the mission was an unnecessary one, as there have been no disturbances in San Francisco, and if there are any the local authorities will be able to suppress them.

WASHINGTON, March 4th.—It appears that although President Hayes, after a Cabinet consultation, consents to accept the resignation of Major Reno, of the 7th Cavalry, and to withhold his approval of the sentence, pronounced by Court Martial, nothing has yet been done. As soon as decision was reached, Major Reno was informed that out of regard for his gallant services in the war, he would be permitted to resign, so as to prevent the record of his disgrace, but his resignation not being received and nearly a month has passed, Reno's friends have been bringing an enormous pressure to bear upon Hayes with the hope of inducing him to modify the sentence of the Court so as to keep Reno in the Army.

WASHINGTON, March 4th.—Miss Raymond, in whose behalf Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood, attorney at law, yesterday filed papers in a suit against Senator Hill, of Georgia, states that the suit was brought without her consent and against her solemn protest, and further says, she, Jessie Raymond, has no claims whatever on or against Senator Hill. The Senator is on the war path to punish the parties who started the affair, which he avers is a blackmailing scheme.

ATLANTA, March 4th.—Jessie Raymond's suit has created a great sensation here. She is well known as a blackmailer. Mrs. Lockwood denies that she instituted proceedings against Senator Hill on her own account but because Miss Raymond ordered her to do so.

CHICAGO, March 4.—The Times' Washington Special says, a member of the committee investigating the star service, had his attention called to the figures of the sixth auditor's report. Investigation showed that the sum demanded by the department for the star service, under threat of discontinuance, was $1,000,000 in excess of full amount required to perpetuate it in its present proportions, and to prove it the committee will present the figures on Thursday, and call on Brady to answer.

WASHINGTON, March 4th.—The trial of Virgil Gully, for murder of Ex. State Senator John P. Gilmer, a victim of the Chisholm massacre, will commence next Monday at Dekalb, Miss. District Attorney Ford will conduct the prosecution, assisted by Judge Ware, U. S. District Attorney for Southern District of Miss. Gilmer's widow will have Washington to-morrow to attend the trial as a witness.

NEW YORK, March 4th.—The Herald San Francisco special has the following: Believing that Kearneyism has been fostered and encouraged by the publicity which the local press heretofore has been giving to this agitation all the leading merchants have united and demanded that the intemperate folly of the press reports shall cease, or they will withdraw their business patronage from the papers. But for the strife between the newspapers here, seeking to capture Kearney and the workingmen, he would have been in obscurity long ago. The papers have, I understand, agreed to leave him hereafter unreported, and in doing so the present agitation will soon cease. It lives greatly on publicity, its orators delighting to read themselves and the reports of what they say.

ATLANTA, March 4th.—Wallace B. White was examined yesterday, before the Legislative Committee, and denies in toto the statement that he paid, or offered money, to either Snow or Harrison, to induce them to resign their seats; he had interviews with them at which they intimated they would resign, and he commended their intentions highly, and assisted in preparing the papers. The Republican members of the Legislature met to night and chose the following delegates to Chicago National Convention: Eugene Hale, Jos. R. Rodwell, E. F. Gill and Almon A. Stone, as alternates, Orylle D. Baker, Fred A. Dow, Wm. Simpson and A. C. Hamlin. Resolutions were adopted reaffirming principles of the party and urging nomination of Blaine.

ASHEM, CAL., March 4.—Last Friday night A. W. Steinhart, cashier of banking house of P. Davis & Co., of this place was stopped on his way home by three masked men who bounced him and conveyed him to a saloon in a remote part of the town, where three other masked men were and with threats attempted to get the combination of the vault from him. He repeatedly told them that he did not have it, but they kept him there until two o'clock on Saturday morning and then let him go. They did him no personal injury. He went home and did not report the affair until the next morning. Last night about 8 o'clock seven masked men rode up to the store of E. L. Crowder and bounced the proprietor and five men who were lounging in the store. One of the men offered resistance and was knocked down with a revolver by one of the robbers. They got about $400 in cash. Nothing was said about the affair until this morning, when it was too late to obtain any clue to the perpetrators of the robbery.

SACRAMENTO, March 4.—Assemblyman Maybell called for report of Committee appointed to investigate his "gallows" dispatch. He didn't want this sword of Damocles hanging over him; and if he was to be hung he wanted to know it. The whole matter was indefinitely postponed.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 4th.—Assessments have been levied on Julia, 60 cents a share; Belvidere, 60 cents; Belmont, 20 cents, and Silver Hill Tunnel, "Bodie," five cents.

FOREIGN.

ST. PETERSBURG, Mar. 4.—The assassin attempted to fire a second shot at Gen. Melikoff, before he was seized, but was prevented by a blow from the General. The bullet passed through the back folds of the General's cloak. The man fired when quite close to Melikoff. He is a semi idiotic person and is probably a tool in the hands of the nihilists. He seemed to be half drunk when arrested; on the other hand it is asserted he is a student and is feigning insanity.

The man who fired at Melikoff yesterday is a converted Jew. He was tried to-day, found guilty, and will be hanged to-morrow.

A BAD BILL.

A bill is now pending in the Legislature providing for the printing of the debates of the late Constitutional Convention at a cost to the people of some $30,000 or $50,000. This is a job for somebody, for the Lord knows the people of this State have had all the Constitutional debates they wanted, and are now perfectly willing to have them remain in oblivion. Of what earthly use can the publishing of those debates be to the people?

We doubt if many of the members of that Convention would like to have their dry speeches printed, and they would be the only ones to read them. Their publication would entail a useless expense to the people and be of no use whatever. The people are now getting all they want of the result of the work of that Convention, an we should think the getters up of it would be satisfied with the publicity given to their debates when that body was in session.

When printed and bound, what then? Who would want them? They would not be as valuable as the Government's Patent Office Reports are; and everybody knows their value. The people have to pay for enough trash that passes through the State Printing Office without being saddled with this additional load. We hope the appropriation of money for such a purpose will be signally defeated.

CONGRESSIONAL.—The following bills have been introduced in Congress: In the House.—To encourage the cultivation of the tea plant.

Repealing all Acts granting lands in Indian Territory to Railroads, conditioned on the extinguishment of Indian titles.

Extending the time to ten years for the completion of the Texas Pacific railroad.

For a survey and disposal of public lands.

A bill abolishing all tariff duties on printing type, trace chains and agricultural implements.

To regulate commerce between the States. Several petitions were presented for the admission, free of duty, of substances used in making paper.

Placing wood and straw pulp and chemicals used in the manufacture of paper on the free list.

Placing printing paper and type on the free list.

Declaring it unlawful for the Secretary of the Treasury to withhold from immediate publication the statistics relating to the importation or shipment of grain, provisions or other merchandise imported into or shipped from the United States.
